FEW SOLDIERS SEND CHAMBER SUGGESTIONS

Less Than 100 Answers Received to Plea for Letters; Many Only Criticize

Less than 100 of the 6500 men stationed at Schofield and Castle have made any suggestions to the Chamber of Commerce telling them the enlisted men would have Honolulu do for them to make them more comfortable here and better contented.

"This is very disappointing," said Raymond C. Brown, secretary of the chamber, yesterday. "There was a great divergence of opinion in the replies."

Many of the men who wrote to Mr. Brown emphasized the fact that the army men did not want the city to do anything for them and criticized the attitude of the people of Honolulu, instead of making suggestions.

"We know the army men have not asked the city to do anything for them," declared the chamber's secretary. "But the people want to do something for them. There is all the difference in the world in the two attitudes. If the men stationed here would only pitch in and help we could do a great deal to make their stay in the islands more agreeable. We want suggestions from them."

There are at present 82 foreigners employed in these services. The bill carries appropriations of $5,000,000, and was favorably reported.
